THE PURPOSE OF THE SUBJECT, LEARNING OUTCOMES:

The subject is a language examination without contact hours.

By taking the TOEIC Listening and Reading Test, students will be able to certify their existing skills from beginner to advanced level of English and determine how effectively and proficiently they can communicate in English.

Students will be able to demonstrate these skills for purposes of work and studies internationally.

SUMMARY OF THE CONTENT OF THE SUBJECT

The TOEIC Listening and Reading test is a paper-based assessment based on multiple choice questions with two timed sections of 100 questions each. It lasts 2 hours and 30 minutes. The test does not require special knowledge, vocabulary or grammar beyond English used in everyday life and work activity.

The Listening section

The Listening section assesses how well test takers understand spoken English. In this section, test takers listen to short passages in English and answer a variety of questions. It consists of four parts and 100 test questions, and lasts 45 minutes:

- Part 1: Photographs
- Part 2: Question-Response
- Part 3: Conversations
- Part 4: Short talks

The Reading Comprehension

The Reading Comprehension section measures how well test takers understand written English. In this section, test takers read materials and answer questions at their own pace. Passages use real-world workplace conversations. The test consists of three parts and 100 test questions, and it lasts 75 minutes:

- Part 5: Incomplete Sentences
- Part 6: Text Comprehension
- Part 7: Reading Comprehension

STUDENT'S TASKS AND PLANNED LEARNING ACTIVITIES:

Students need to complete the TOEIC Reading and Listening Test.

EVALUATION OF THE SUBJECT:

The TOEIC Listening and Reading is not a pass/fail test. There is no penalty for wrong answers. Test results indicate your English proficiency levels for listening and reading.

The score for each section (Listening and Reading) is determined by the number of correct answers, which is then converted to a scaled score ranging from 5-495 points and a CEFR level A1 to C1. The total scaled score is determined by adding the two scaled scores together. The Score Certificate provides Listening, Reading and total scaled scores.

In addition, seven language proficiency descriptions are provided in the Score Certificates (three for the Listening Section and four for the Reading Section).

Regardless of the result, students will receive a score report. However, to gain the optional credits for the TOEIC test, students need to achieve a minimum score for a pass grade. Grading is a 5-point scale according to the following:

- 595 - pass (2)
- 695 – satisfactory (3)
- 795 – good (4)
- 895 – excellent (5)

Offered grade can be given: No.
